

Byelaw 17

Election Regulations

1. General Regulations

- 1.1. The Elections Committee shall have overall responsibility for all elections and shall be empowered to rule on any matter relating to the conduct of elections.
- 1.2. The Elections Committee Chair shall be responsible to Student Council for the organisation of elections held by cross-campus ballot. The Elections Committee shall appoint up to 3 Deputy Returning Officers, to support the Elections Committee in maintaining the regulations within this Byelaw and monitor conduct of candidates, and a Returning Officer, who shall not be a Member of AUSA and who shall have relevant experience.
- 1.3. Elections shall only be held on weekdays during the academic terms defined by the University Senate.
- 1.4. Single vacancy elections shall be held by the Single Transferable Voting (STV) system.
- 1.5. Elections of delegates to the Annual Conference of the National Union of Students and the Annual Conference of the National Union of Students Scotland shall normally be conducted by the Single Transferable Vote system and shall be gender balanced.
- 1.6. All elections shall provide the opportunity to vote for "Re-open Nominations", in preference to one or more candidates.
- 1.7. If insufficient nominations have been received to fill all vacancies at the close of nominations, the election shall proceed as normal.
- 1.8. The Chair of the Elections Committee and the Returning Officer Team shall be responsible for all matters relating to the counting of elections.

2. Duties of the Returning Officer

- 2.1. To satisfy themselves on the basis of information provided by the Deputy Returning Officers and the Elections Committee that the conduct of elections and referenda is in accordance with this Byelaw.

2.2. To advise the Returning Officers and Elections Committee on any matter they deem necessary.

2.3. To produce a report on the elections.

3. Duties of the Deputy Returning Officers

3.1. To support the Elections Committee on any matter relating to the conduct of the election.

3.2. To ensure that the election is conducted in accordance with this Byelaw and any other regulations specified.

3.3. To seek advice from the Returning Officer on any matter of interpretation of this Byelaw.

4. Elections Committee

4.1. The Chair of the Elections Committee shall be one of the Sabbatical Officers.

4.2. Student Council shall appoint an Elections Committee for each academic year. The Committee shall consist of any 5 members elected by Student Council.

4.3. The Elections Committee shall consider and advise on the promotion and organisation of the election, on the regulations for publicity and on the rules for candidates.

4.4. Members of the Elections Committee shall not be candidates or be involved in any candidate's campaign team in any election for which they are responsible.

4.5. Sabbaticals can Co-Chair the Elections Committee if appropriate. In this case both their votes count as one.

5. Eligibility to Stand and Vote

5.1. All Members shall be eligible to stand as candidates and vote in all elections, except as specified below.

5.2. Members shall not seek election for more than one post of Student Officer, as constituted under Byelaw 4, or more than one post of Councillor, in any set of elections. Members who have stood for one post of Student Officer in an academic year may not stand for any other post in that year, except where such a post is newly created or has been substantially changed and can be reasonably seen to being open for election for the first time.

5.3. Candidates for Student Officer posts shall be required as part of the nomination process to sign a declaration that they are eligible and willing to serve as a Trustee of AUSA. Members who are ineligible to serve as a Trustee or unwilling to sign the declaration may not stand for election as a Student Officer.

5.4. The right to vote and stand as a candidate for Liberation and Section forums shall be limited to students who identify as a member of those groups represented by each Group, as defined in Byelaw 6.

- 5.5. The right to vote and stand as a candidate for NUS Liberation and Section Conferences shall be limited to those students who identify with each group as per NUS regulations.

7. Regulations for Elections by Cross-Campus Ballot

7.1. Notice of Elections

7.1.1. The Chair of the Elections Committee shall give notice of elections, which shall include:

- 7.1.1.1. details of posts for election;
- 7.1.1.2. the election timetable, in accordance with this Byelaw;
- 7.1.1.3. ensuring the online nominations process is quick, easy and fair.

7.1.2. This notice shall be published in the AUSA Students' Union Building, on AUSA website, in any regular publication of the Students' Union, and in such other places as the Elections Committee may determine.

7.2. Nominations

7.2.1. Nominations shall be made on an online nomination form which shall require:

- 7.2.1.1. the title of the post to be contested;
- 7.2.1.2. the registered name and Student ID number of the candidate;
- 7.2.1.3. alternative, preferred name (by which the candidate is commonly known);
- 7.2.1.4. a photograph bearing a genuine likeness of the candidate, as on their Student card;
- 7.2.1.5. a slogan of up to 15 words which the candidate may have placed by their name on the ballot paper;
- 7.2.1.6. an election statement of no more than 100 words, or 250 words for candidates for Officer posts.
- 7.2.1.7. If any nomination is deemed to be invalid, in accordance with the Constitution and Byelaws the Elections Committee shall inform the person nominated within one day, and publish the details at the time of publishing nominations.
- 7.2.1.8. Any Member may challenge the validity of a nomination, within 2 days following the publication of nominations, on the grounds that it does not comply with the Constitution and Byelaws. The Returning Officers shall rule on the challenge and their decision shall be final.
- 7.2.1.9. Any candidate may withdraw from an election, no later than 3 days prior to voting and at the discretion of the Elections Committee, only by writing to the Elections Committee.
- 7.2.1.10. Candidates may specify an alternative preferred name, by which they are commonly known, on the nomination form, which may then be used on the voting paper and in any election publicity. The Returning Officers shall have discretion to rule on the appropriateness of any specified alternative names. If candidates do not specify an alternative preferred name, or if the Returning Officers rule that the name specified is inappropriate, then the candidate's registered name shall be used on voting papers.

- 7.2.1.11. Delegates to the Annual and Scottish Conference of the National Union of Students (NUS) shall be elected by a ballot of all students, with the exception of the President who shall be an ex-officio delegate. An election shall be held for the full permitted number of delegates, conducted in accordance with this Byelaw. In the event of an insufficient number of delegates being elected, no further election shall be held and no other members appointed to the delegation.

7.3. Election Campaigns

- 7.3.1. All candidates shall act in accordance with the regulations contained within this Byelaw and with any other regulations approved by Student Council, and shall be required to sign an undertaking to this effect.
- 7.3.2. No Student Officer, as defined in Byelaw 4, Student Council or Standing Committee, as defined in Byelaw 5, shall endorse any candidate for election to any of the posts outlined in Clause 4 above in any written or published material.
