

STUDENTS' UNION

RECONVENED AGM 2023

MONDAY 27TH NOVEMBER 2023, 5:30PM, KCG7

Agenda

A quick look back...

It helps to know where you've been to know where you're going – in this segment we'll cover the minutes from our last AGM, giving you an idea of any previous business.

You can download those here in advance.

Your SU...

Next up we'll give you an update of what we've been up to over the last year to make students' lives better, as well as presenting our annual report, accounts, any appointments, and affiliations.

University Q&A...

The part you've been waiting for. After we have conducted our official business, we will quickly open the floor to you in our Q&A segments.

First up we have some special guests – Vice Principal Karl Leydecker and CFO Mark White, who will be talking about the financial challenges faced by the university and answering questions afterwards.

Students' Union Q&A...

This is your chance to ask us anything – we will take your feedback and suggestions forward to help shape the Students' Union for the better.

Headlining this session will be our Officers including Student President Vanessa Mabonso Nzolo who will be giving an update on our Israel-Palestine statement and resources.
